Run Forest, run!

Steve Weber portrayed Forest Gump at the Philipsburg Chamber of Commerce's last meeting bringing with him his motivational messages. Weber, of Missoula, said that the old idea of "life is what you get" is that of a victim mentality. He advocates that while life is a box a chocolates you can choose whatever chocolate you wish and if you choose more wisely you will be more in control. He calls the notion "gumption" or taking action. Weber is a spokesman for Bubba Gump Shrimp.
